

Mr. Guerin – Opening Statement

- Filed a grievance against Mike and Donald on Sunday and saw their Facebook page which said “M ‘peach’ D”
- In his comments to Donald’s dismissal motion: complaining about his impeachment was slightly irrelevant
- Both Donald and Mike were tagged in Facebook page
 - If he was trying to campaign with that, someone else had that as their profile picture –Paige Davis
 - Chairman – send screen shot of third party Facebook profile picture

Mr. Jordan – Opening Statement

- The picture has nothing to do with the Jordan/Garrett campaign
- The picture reads “Impeached” and was posted up following Donald Garrett’s impeachment
- This picture highlights his running mate’s impeachment, but does not raise his probability as a candidate
- Mike Jordan removed the profile picture because it didn’t pertain to him directly
- Donald Garrett was making this as an inside joke and encouraged many others to change their profile picture to the picture
 - Paige Davis did that as an accident
- Mr. Jordan’s words: I would have never thought to use a peach as a campaign tool
 - The peach has nothing to do with George Mason or with campaign material
 - A singular “M” or “D” has not been found anywhere on materials submitted to the EDC
- Messages conducted between Mike Jordan and Donald Garrett
 - Will send an electronic copy to the EDC
 - Conversation is about impeachment and not at all about the campaign
- Only two people to like it were those who voted “no” on the impeachment resolution
- The freshman, Paige Davis, mistakenly thought this picture was their campaign photo, but removed it after noting that it was not for the campaign
- The tagging wasn’t intentional: Mr. Garrett: it’s a political statement about the impeachment; he was lynched by other political branches of SG
- Will send documentation with Paige Davis

Mr. Guerin – Questions for the Defendants

- The letters are both green, their background is black, just like in the campaign picture
 - Why use the same font in the campaign poster as in the disputed picture
 - Mr. Jordan: The fonts are similar, but not the same

Mr. Garrett – Questions for the Petitioner

- Why did Mr. Guerin file a frivolous grievance?
- Has he seen any of our campaign material with a peach in it?
 - No
- Has the impeachment been any part of the campaign material?
 - No

Mr. Guerin – Closing Statement

- On Sunday night before campaign started, he thought it was campaigning and didn't realize it was an inside joke
 - Could be construed as campaign material even if it wasn't
- Mr. Jordan claims it's not the same font; but Mr. Guerin sees them as the same color scheme, same font

Mr. Jordan and Mr. Garrett – Closing Statement

- Inside joke that was a misconception and misconstrued
- It says “impeached” – simple as that
- The privacy settings of Facebook are the result as to why the tagging is there for Mr. Jordan
- When evaluating this, 2.8 of code is cited
 - It was stupid and a mistake, but an inside joke

Chairman's Questions to the Defendants

- The picture was deleted off of Facebook
 - Mr. Garrett said he didn't know
 - Mr. Jordan said he still has it
