

Code of Student Governance of George Mason University

2015-2016

Last Amended on March 3rd, 2016

Title I: General Provisions

Chapter 1: Code of Student Governance

§ 101 Contents and Designation of the Code

The statutes embraced in this and the following titles, chapters, and sections of this act shall constitute, and be designated and cited as the “Code of Student Governance,” hereinafter referred to as “the Code” or “this code.”

§ 102 Effective Date of the Code

All the provisions of this Code shall be in force upon their enactment.

Chapter 2: Rules of Construction

§ 201 Rules of Construction

In the construction of this Code and of all statutes, the rules shall be observed as set forth in this title, unless the construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intention of the Student Senate.

§ 202 Duties Assigned to an Agency

Whenever a duty or responsibility is imposed upon an agency, department, or office of the Student Government in this Code, the duty or responsibility is imposed upon the chief executive officer of that agency.

§ 203 Errors Not to Invalidate Statute

Spelling, grammatical, typographical, or punctuation errors shall not invalidate a statute.

§ 204 Gender

Words importing the masculine gender – he/him, chairman, et cetera – include all other genders as well (she/her, chairwoman; they/them, chairperson; et cetera).

§ 205 Number

The singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular.

§ 206 Severability

Any provision of this Code, or the application thereof, which is held invalid by a court of Student Government, or the governing or administrative authority of the University, shall not affect the validity of other statutes, provisions or applications of this Code that can be executed without the invalid provisions or applications. The provisions of all statutes are severable unless:

- (1) The statute specifically provides that its provisions are not severable;
- (2) It is apparent that two or more statutes or provisions must operate in accordance with one another.

§ 207 Tense

Words used in the past or present tense shall include the future.

§ 208 United States Standard Eastern Time

In all statutes, orders, decrees, rules and regulations relating to the time of performance of any act by any officer or agency of the Student Government, or relating to the time in which any rights shall accrue, it shall be understood and intended that the time applicable thereto, or referred to, or implied therein, shall be United States standard Eastern time, or daylight saving time, during and when such is in effect.

§ 209 Weekends and Holidays

When a Student Government proceeding is directed by statute to be held on a particular day of a month, if that day be Sunday or any legal holiday within the meaning of § 2.1-21 of the Code of Virginia, the proceeding shall be held or the proceeding shall take place on the next day that is neither Sunday nor a legal holiday;

§ 210 Words and Phrases

Words and phrases shall be construed according to rules of grammar and according to their common and approved usage, but technical words and phrases and such others as have acquired a peculiar and appropriate meaning or are defined in this title, shall be construed according to such peculiar and appropriate meaning or definition.

Chapter 3: Statutory Construction

§ 301 Arrangement

- (1) This Code consists of titles subdivided into subtitles, chapters, subchapters, and such other subdivisions as may be required for clarity of expression and uniformity of style;
- (2) The principal subdivisions of a subtitle, or of a title that is not divided into subtitles, of this Code are chapters, comprising the sections relating to the subtitle or title, respectively, embraced in the heading of the chapter. Chapters shall consist of not more than 99 sections;
- (3) Sections of this code are identified sequentially by Arabic numerals. The last two digits in the section number indicate the sequence of sections within a chapter, and the digit or digits preceding such digits indicates the number of the chapter. A section of this Code is subdivided into subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses, sub-clauses, and such other minor subdivisions as may be required for clarity of expression and uniformity of style.

§ 302 Nomenclature

- (1) In this Code, titles will be identified sequentially by Arabic numerals;
- (2) In this Code, subdivisions of sections will be identified in the following order: subsections are identified sequentially by Arabic numerals in parentheses, paragraphs are identified sequentially by capital letters in parentheses, subparagraphs are identified sequentially by Arabic numerals, clauses are identified sequentially by capital letters, and sub-clauses are identified sequentially by lower case letters. Lowercase Roman numerals in parentheses will be reserved for numbering within paragraphs.

§ 303 Adding Subdivisions

- (1) If it becomes necessary to introduce a new chapter between existing chapters, the new chapter is designated by the addition of a period and a number suffix to the preceding chapter number;

- (2) If it becomes necessary to introduce a new section between existing sections, the new section is designated by the addition of a period and number suffix to the preceding section number.

§ 304 Section Headings

Each section of this Code shall be given a brief descriptive heading immediately preceding the body of the section. The headings of the sections may be referred to as catch lines. In printing this Code and its amendments, the symbol “§” shall be substituted for the word “Section” preceding the digits of a section number in each catch line. Subsections may also have headings for convenience, but subsection headings shall not be set out on separate lines.

§ 305 Citation of Code of Student Governance

Without prejudice to any other form of citation, a citation of any section of this Code in the following form shall, except as provided for in §306 of this Title, be adequate for all purposes: “1 CSG §101.”

§ 306 Cross-References Between Provisions of the Code

When reference is made in this Code to a provision contained in any other section of the same title, such provision may be identified without specifying the number of the title in which it appears. When reference is made in this Code to a provision contained in any section of this Code appearing in a different title, the short form of citation specified in §305 of this Title shall be used.

§ 307 Re-Use of Section Numbers

A section number shall not be re-used for a different subject, except in a bill to revise a subtitle, chapter, subchapter, or other major subdivision of this Code.

Chapter 4: Amending the Code of Student Governance

§ 401 Quarterly Calendar of Amendments to the Code of Student Governance

At the beginning of the academic year, the Speaker of the senate shall divide the year into quarters. At the end of these quarters, the Code shall have the opportunity to be amended. These four times shall be the only times in the Academic Year that the Code of Student Governance can be amended, with the exception of cases that apply to §404.

§ 402 Process to Amend the Code of Student Governance

The process for amending the Code of Student Governance shall go as follows:

- (1) Three weeks before the end of each Quarter, the Speaker of the Student Senate shall ask the Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee to offer a bill for amendments to the Code of Student Governance, which shall then be open to any senator for any submitted changes.
- (2) Senators shall have until noon on Tuesday of the second week before the end of the Quarter to submit any changes and amendments to the Code, to the Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee to add to the Bill. If no amendments are submitted by the established time, then the bill will not proceed.
- (3) The Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, on behalf of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, shall submit the Bill for First Reading to the Clerk of the Student Senate by 4:30pm on Wednesday of the second week before the end of the Quarter.

- (4) The Bill shall then, at the discretion of the Speaker of the Student Senate, be sent to the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee to be approved for Second Reading during the last week of the Quarter but before the Senate meeting in that last week.
- (5) Upon passage of the Bill in the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, the Student Senate shall vote on the Bill on the Thursday of the last week of the Quarter.
- (6) All Code Bill Amendments will become effective immediately upon signage of the Student Body President, unless otherwise stated in the Code Bill.

§ 403 Bills to Amend the Code of Student Governance

Bills to amend the Code of Student Governance shall be drafted to conform to the structure of the Code of Student Governance of George Mason University, as provided in chapter 3. Such Bill shall require a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

§404 Emergency Amendments to the Code of Student Governance

If an emergency, which shall be determined at the discretion of the Speaker, arises, then the Speaker may ask the Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, on behalf of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, to write a bill to address the emergency amendment. The bill will then be submitted to the Clerk of the Student Senate at the next opportunity to do so, for First Reading. The Bill, at the discretion of the Speaker, shall then be sent to the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee to be approved for Second Reading. If approved by the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, the Bill shall be reported back to the Senate at the following Senate meeting to be voted on by the entire Senate.

Title II: The Legislative Branch

SUBTITLE I: ORGANIZATION OF THE STUDENT SENATE

Chapter 1: Commencement of the Student Senate

§ 101 Membership of the Student Senate

There shall be no more than 40 Senators in the Student Senate, and no more than 40 individuals shall be Senators. No more than 30 Senators shall be elected during the annual Student Government Elections. The remaining positions shall be unfilled by spring elections and reserved for the following fall elections of freshmen and transfer students. No Senator who shall have failed to run for elective office during the spring Student Government Elections shall be eligible for fall elections.

§ 102 Early Organization of the Student Senate

- (1) Any member of the Student Senate after consultation with the Speaker may at any time call a caucus to be attended by all incumbent Senators who have been re-elected to the ensuing Student Senate and all other Senators-elect, for the purpose of taking all steps necessary to achieve the prompt organization of the Senators and Senators-elect of the ensuing Student Senate;

- (2) If any member calls an organizational caucus or conference under Subsection 1 of this section, he shall file with the Clerk of the Student Senate a written notice designating the date and location upon which the caucus is to convene. As soon as possible after the election of Senators to the ensuing Student Senate, the Clerk shall furnish each Senator-elect with appropriate written notification of the caucus.

§ 103 Roll of Senators-elect

Before the first meeting of each Student Senate, the Clerk of the next preceding Student Senate shall make a roll of the Senators-elect, and place thereon the names of those persons, and of such persons only, whose credentials show that they were regularly elected in accordance with the statutes of the Student Government. In case of a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Student Senate, or of the absence or inability of the Clerk to discharge the duties imposed by statute, or custom relative to the preparation of the roll of Senators-elect or the organization of the Student Senate, those duties shall devolve highest ranking member of the preceding Student Senate that is not a member of the next Student Senate.

§ 104 Commencement of the Student Senate

The Student Senate shall be in session on the first Thursday of May succeeding every general election of the Student Government. The Student Senate shall meet at the hour of 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, when the Clerk of the Student Senate shall call the Senators-elect to order and proceed to record their presence in alphabetical order. A quorum being present, the Clerk shall proceed with the business of the day. Pending the election of the Speaker or Speaker Pro Tempore, the Clerk shall preserve order and decorum and decide all questions of order, subject to appeal by any member. In case of a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Student Senate, or of the absence or inability of the Clerk to discharge the duties imposed by statute, or custom relative to the commencement of the Student Senate, those duties shall devolve on the highest ranking member of the preceding Student Senate that is not a member of the next Student Senate.

§ 105 Election of Speaker of the Student Senate

The Clerk of the proceeding Student Senate shall administer through a roll call vote the election of the Speaker of the Student Senate. He shall record the votes for the election of Speaker of the Student Senate and the votes having been ascertained and counted, the result of the same shall be delivered to the Clerk, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the person, if any, elected Speaker of the Student Senate of George Mason University, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the Journal of the Student Senate.

§ 106 Election of Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Student Senate

The Clerk of the proceeding Student Senate shall administer through a roll call vote the election of the Speaker Pro Tempore of the Student Senate. He shall record the votes having been ascertained and counted, the result of the same shall be delivered to the Clerk, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed sufficient declaration of the person, if any, elected Speaker Pro Tempore of the Student Senate of George Mason University, and, together with a list of the votes, shall be entered on the Journal of the Student Senate.

§ 107 Conference of Titles

No title of Student Government shall be bestowed as is not approved by a majority of the Student Senate.

§ 108 Appointment of New Senators

If after fall elections, the Senate does not have 40 members, the appointment of new senators will take effect.

- (1) In order to be considered a prospective Senator, a minimum of 150 signatures from the Students at George Mason University must be obtained, as well as a Faculty/Staff signature as per the Election and Dispute Commission's rules for campaign eligibility in 6CSG §305 before the Student Senate may approve any new appointee's. Applications for appointment will not be accepted from 4:29p.m. on the first Thursday in March until the first day of the next academic year.
- (2) Before appearing before the full senate, the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee shall administer interview process, the specific contents of which are left to the sole discretion of the Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee. The Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs committee may only interview one candidate per seat available for appointment, which shall be conducted on a first-come-first-serve basis. The voting process of such appointments shall be done by roll call vote.
- (3) Upon approval by a majority roll call vote of Senators Present, which shall occur as the last item of the docket, prospective Senators shall be given the oath of office, and shall be granted all the privileges and duties that pertain to the office of Senator.

§ 108.1 Appointment of New Senators Prior to Fall Elections

If prior to the fall elections, the Senate falls below the number of 30 Senators, it may begin the appointment process on the first day of the new Academic Year, in order to fill vacancies up to 30 members. Those applying for appointment prior to the fall elections must be students who are not freshman or first year transfer students. The appointment procedures to fill these vacancies of office shall follow the procedures outlined in § 108, subsections 1 through 3.

§ 109 Transition Day

On the Friday after the commencement of the new Senate, the leadership of the previous Senate and the newly elected leadership shall have a Transition Workshop Day.

Chapter 2: Legislative Sessions

§ 201 Sessions of the Student Senate

- (1) The term commencing on the first Monday of May and ending on December 15 is designated as the first session of the Student Senate;
- (2) The term commencing on the Last Monday of January and ending on April 30 is designated as the second session of the Student Senate.

§ 202 Special Sessions

- (1) Whenever two-thirds of the members of the Student Senate shall, after their adjournment sine die, or during recess, desire to convene the Senate, they shall transmit a petition in writing to the Speaker of the Student Senate over their own signatures declaring the purpose for such assembly. The Speaker shall thereupon convene the Student Senate, at such time and place and for such purpose as shall be designated by the application.

- (2) Furthermore, if extenuating circumstances call for a special session of the Senate to occur, the Speaker may exercise his discretion, and call a special session. To occur, a majority of the Senate must be in attendance, and all votes must be passed with two-thirds of the members present at the special session.

Chapter 3: Attendance Policy

§ 301 Absence from Service

No member shall be absent from Service to the Senate, unless the member is sick or under extreme circumstances unable to attend. Extreme circumstances include but are not limited to the following reasons: academic commitment, illness, family emergency, religious observance, and personal emergency, and are determined at the discretion of the Speaker of the Student Senate.

§ 302 Notification of Absences

Prior to the start of Senate or Committee meeting, the absent member shall inform the appropriate Senate member of their absence. Upon failure to do so, the absence will be considered unexcused.

§ 303 Accumulation of Two Unexcused Absences

When the member has accrued two unexcused absences in a semester, the Speaker of the Student Senate shall notify the member of their status.

§ 304 Removal from Senate

Upon the third unexcused absence of the semester, the Speaker of the Student Senate will notify the member of their removal from the position of Student Senator.

SUBTITLE II: STANDING PROCEDURES OF THE STUDENT SENATE

Chapter 4: Legislative Process

§ 401 Process for Introduction of Legislation

Members having bills or resolutions shall present them the Clerk via in accordance with the Legislative Drafting Manual of the Student Senate, at least 24 hours prior to the meeting at which they are to be read. At which point, the Clerk must send the legislation via the Senate mailing list, at least 12 hours prior to the meeting. Any bill or resolution introduced in the Senate must list the names of sponsors and any co-sponsors.

- (1) The Clerk shall assign each Bill or Resolution a number in the order in which they are presented, and a title.
- (2) Upon receipt of such legislation the Speaker shall schedule a reading for each Bill or Resolution. It shall be distinctly announced or set out at each reading on the Agenda, whether it is the first or second reading.
- (3) Senators shall have the ability to submit new legislation during open session.

- (4) All agendas, bills, and resolutions for meetings are to be sent through email prior to Senate meetings and are to be projected during the meetings. Hard copies are only to be printed for the Leadership of the Student Senate (Speaker, Speaker Pro- Tempore, and Chairpersons).

§ 402 First Reading and Committee Referral

The sponsor shall, under the direction of the Speaker, read each Bill or Resolution at the appropriate time. Subsequent to the reading the Speaker may refer said legislation to a standing or ad hoc committee as deemed appropriate. The Speaker may also assign a date by which said committee must report on the matter. The Clerk shall enter the facts and the names of the aforementioned members, and committee, into the Journal.

§ 403 Bills or Resolutions in Committee

After being referred to a committee by the Speaker, the Bill or Resolution shall be under consideration by said committee, at said committee's next meeting. At which time the committee shall determine the fate of said legislation, being defined by the question, "Does said legislation pass committee?"

- (1) To make any amendment(s), other than clerical, to said legislation, a majority vote of said committee's members present is required
- (2) A majority vote of said committee's members present shall determine the fate of said legislation.
- (3) After the fate of said legislation has been determined, the result shall be transmitted to the Clerk in accordance with §401.
- (4) All amendments passed must be clear and distinguished from the original legislation.

§ 404 Second Reading

After said committee had dispensed with a Bill or Resolution, it shall report its findings on the matter to the Senate. Said committee's chairperson, if passed by committee, will then read the Bill or Resolution. If a date or report was set and the committee took no action, the second reading shall be made by the sponsor of the legislation as originally submitted, unless an extension of time is requested and subsequently approved by the Speaker. Subsequent to the second reading, the legislation shall be immediately before the Senate. In the case that the Speaker does not refer a bill or resolution to committee the second reading will be waived and legislation shall be immediately before the Senate.

§ 405 Voting Procedures in Committee and Senate on Bills and Resolutions

After a bill or resolution has been moved into Second reading and recognized as such by the Speaker, when in Senate, or by the Chair, when in Committee, the bill or resolution shall be voted on using a roll call vote.

SUBTITLE III: OFFICERS OF THE STUDENT SENATE

A chairman must notify standing members of their committee and the Speaker a day before canceling a meeting.

Chapter 17: Succession

§ 1701 Senate Succession

- (1) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is no Speaker of the Student Senate, the Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Senate upon immediate resignation of his office will discharge the powers of the Speaker of the Student Senate;
- (2) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is no Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Student Senate, the Speaker of the Student Senate will appoint a new Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Student Senate with the advice and consent of the Student Senate;
- (3) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is no Clerk of the Student Senate, the Speaker of the Student Senate will appoint a new Clerk of the Student Senate with the advice and consent of the Student Senate;
- (4) The same rule shall apply in the case of the death, resignation, removal from office, or inability of an individual acting as Speaker of the Student Senate or Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Student Senate under this subsection;
- (5) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, both the Speaker of the Student Senate and the Speaker Pro Tempore of the Student Senate are unable to discharge the duties of their offices, the order of succession shall be as follows: The Clerk of the Student Senate, the Chair of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, the Chair of the University Services Committee, the Chair of the Diversity and Multicultural Affairs Committee, the Chair of the University Life Committee, the Chair of the Government and Community Relations Committee, and the Chair of the Academic Affairs Committee.
- (6) Subsections 1 and 3 of this section shall apply only to such officers as are eligible to the office of Speaker of the Student Senate under the Student Body Constitution. Subsection 3 of this section shall apply only to officers appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, prior to the time of the death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, of the Speaker, and only to officers not under impeachment by the Student Election and Dispute Commission at the time the powers and duties of the office of Student Body President devolve upon them.

Title III: The Executive Branch

SUBTITLE I: STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT OF GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

Chapter 1: Succession and Transfer of Power

§ 101 Resignation or Refusal of Office

The only evidence of a refusal to accept, or of a resignation of the office of Student Body President or Student Body Vice President, shall be an instrument in writing, declaring the same, and subscribed by the person refusing to accept or resigning, as the case may be, and delivered to the Speaker of the Senate.

§ 102 Presidential Succession

If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is neither a Student Body President nor Student Body Vice President to discharge the powers and duties of the office of Student body President then, as per the Constitution of the Student Government of George Mason University, the officer of the Student Government who is the highest on the following list shall become the Acting Student Body President-upon resignation from their previous office- and shall uphold the powers, duties, and title of the Office of the President: Speaker of the Senate, Speaker Pro-Tempore of the Senate, then to the Chairman in order of the longest to the newest standing committees as laid out in the Code of Student governance.

- (1) An individual acting as Student Body President under Subsection 1 or Subsection 3 of this section shall continue to act until the expiration of the then current Presidential term, except that—
- (2) If his or her discharge of the powers and duties of the office is founded in whole or in part on the failure of both the Student Body President-elect and the Student Body Vice-President-elect to qualify, then he shall act only until a President or Vice President qualifies;
- (3) If his or her discharge of the powers and duties of the office is founded in whole or in part on the inability of the Student Body President or Student Body Vice President, then he shall act only until the removal of the disability of one of such individuals.
- (4) An individual acting as Student Body President under this subsection shall continue until the expiration of the then current Presidential term, but not after a qualified and prior-entitled individual is able to act, except that the removal of the disability of an individual higher on the list contained in Subsection 3 of this subsection or the ability to qualify on the part of an individual higher on such list shall not terminate his service;
- (5) The taking of the oath of office by an individual specified in the list in Subsection 3 of this subsection shall be held to constitute his resignation from the office by virtue of the holding of which he qualifies to act as Student Body President;
- (6) Subsections 1 and 3 of this section shall apply only to such officers as are eligible to the office of Student Body President under the Student Body Constitution. Subsection 3 of this section shall apply only to officers appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, prior to the time of the death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, of the Speaker, and only to officers not under impeachment by the Elections and Disputes Commission at the time the powers and duties of the office of Student Body President devolve upon them.

§ 103 Transfer of Power

Whenever the Student Body President transmits to the Speaker of the Senate his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the Powers and Duties of his Office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Student Body Vice President as Acting President.

§ 104 Suspending Presidential Power

- (1) Whenever the Student Body Vice President and a majority of the principal officers of the Executive Departments transmit to the Speaker of the Student Senate their written declaration that the Student Body President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting Student Body President;
- (2) Thereafter, when the Student Body President transmits to the Speaker of the Student Senate his or her written declaration that no inability exists, he or she shall resume the powers and duties of the office unless the Student Body Vice President and a majority of the principal officers of the Executive Departments transmit within four days to the Speaker of the Student Senate their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his or her office;

- (3) Thereupon the Student Senate shall decide the issue, assembling within seventy-two hours for that purpose if not session. If the Student Senate, within seven days after the receipt of the latter written declaration, determines by two-thirds vote that the Student Body President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

§ 105 Presidential Powers and Duties

- (1) To appoint Secretaries and Deputy Secretaries to positions within the Executive Departments;
- (2) To appoint members to University Committees as appropriate and available;
- (3) The Student Body President shall have the power to appoint a Chief of Staff and personal advisors. The Chief of Staff and advisors are internal advisors and may act within the Executive Branch.
- (4) To meet with the Assistant Director of Student Activities for Student Governance;
- (5) To perform other duties required by the Student Body Constitution or statute.

Chapter 2.1: Election Judicial Board

§ 2.101 Establishment of Election Judicial Board

The Election Judicial Board is established as an agency of the Elections and Disputes Commission.

§ 2.102 Membership

The Election Judicial Board shall consist only of Commissioners. It is lead and moderated by a Chairman who shall only vote in the case of a tie. The Chairman of the Elections and Disputes Commission shall be an ex-officio member of the Board with the power to debate but not vote.

§ 2.103 Original Jurisdiction

The Election Judicial Board shall have the power to investigate and rule on any grievances claiming violation of election regulations, and administer any necessary remedies.

§ 2.104 Hearings of the Election Judicial Board

At least three members shall preside over hearings in order to hear any grievance claiming violation of election regulations. The Election Judicial Board shall keep a full and public record of their meetings and any hearings or rulings that they may make.

Chapter 2.2: Disputes Board

§ 2.201 Establishment of Disputes Board

The Disputes Board is established as an agency of the Elections and Disputes Commission.

§ 2.202 Membership

The Disputes Board shall consist only of Commissioners. It is lead and moderated by a Chairman who shall only vote in the case of a tie. The Chairman of the Elections and Disputes Commission shall be an ex-officio member of the Board with the power to debate but not vote.

§ 2.203 Original Jurisdiction

The Disputes Board shall have the power to investigate and rule on any disputes between the Legislative and Executive Branches and to hear disputes that arise over matters of constitutionality of either branch in terms of the Student Body Constitution, the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Virginia, or the Constitution of the United States.

§ 2.204 Hearings of the Disputes Board

At least three members shall preside over hearings in order to hear any grievance under this chapter. The Disputes Board shall keep a full and public record of their meetings and any hearings or rulings that they may make.

SUBTITLE II: POWERS OF ELECTIONS & DISPUTES COMMISSION

Chapter 3: Powers Generally

§ 301 Authoritative Standing

The Elections & Disputes Commission shall have authority over matters pertinent to the Commission's constitutional purpose and those established in accordance with 6 CSG.

§ 302 Rule Making

The Elections & Disputes Commission shall have the power to craft all rules, or determined by statute, that are necessary to their operation, provided said rules do not contravene any provisions of this Title or this Code.

Chapter 4: Internal and External Rule Creation

§ 401 Referral of Grievances

All grievances or disputes filed with the Elections and Disputes Commission shall be referred to the proper agency with original jurisdiction over the matter.

§ 402 First Appeal

After an agency of the Elections and Disputes Commission has ruled on a dispute or grievance, the losing party may appeal the decision to the entire Elections and Disputes Commission. The Elections and Disputes Commission shall then have a hearing and decide on sustaining or overruling the ruling of the agency. If the ruling is overruled, the Commission shall either reverse the ruling or determine a new sanction.

§ 403 Second Appeal

- (1) After the Elections and Disputes Commission has ruled on a dispute or grievance, the losing party may appeal the decision to a Faculty Review Board consisting of the Assistant Director of Student Governance, the Director of the Office of Student Involvement, and another Faculty member of the Office of Student Involvement or Office of University life. The Faculty Review Board must have all three members present in order to reach a ruling. This ruling must be solely based in fact and the Constitution of Student Government, and not the wisdom behind the rule.
- (2) The Faculty Review Board must issue a written ruling within 48 hours.
- (3) The filing of a second appeal must include at least one of the grounds listed in § 404 as the bases for the losing party's filing.
- (4) During the Second Appeal Hearing, the Election and Disputes Commission along with the all involved parties shall both be allowed to present their arguments regarding the ruling on the dispute or grievance at issue. The Election and Disputes Commission shall be represented by the Chairman of the Election and Disputes Commission, or the most senior Commissioner by tenure who sided with the majority.

§ 404 Grounds for a Second Appeal

The losing party may only appeal a second time if:

- (1) Evidence that was not available at a previous hearing which, had it been available, would in all reasonable likelihood have produced a different finding;
 - A) This evidence must have been completely unavailable at the initial hearing. It cannot simply be evidence that previously existed, but was not presented at the initial hearing. The duty of thoroughly and comprehensively presenting information during the initial hearing falls upon the parties, not the Election and Disputes Commission or the Faculty Review Board.
- (2) There is a substantial procedural irregularity in one of the hearings of the Elections and Disputes Commission or one of its agencies; or

- (3) There was bias, which can be proven, with the Elections and Disputes Commission or one of its agencies resulting in a violation of the standards of fairness used in hearings.

§ 405 Results of Second Appeal

The Faculty Review Board must author an opinion which will then be sent to the Elections and Disputes Commission for reconsideration or a re-trial under fair conditions.

§ 406 Creation and Establishment of an Election Code

At least 4 Thursdays before the release of election packets for the succeeding session year, starting with the Spring Elections, the Elections and Disputes Commission will produce an Election Code and then present it to the Senate. The Election Code will also apply to the Fall Election. The Senate must approve the Election code with a two-thirds vote. If the Election Code is not approved the first time, members of the Senate are allowed to give written suggestions to the Elections and Dispute Commission within 24 hours of meeting. The Election and Disputes Commission will then meet prior to the next Senate meeting to revise their proposed code. A resubmitted code will be presented to the Senate to be voted on. At this point if the Senate does not pass the Elections Code, it is the Senate's responsibility to elect three of its members to sit on the Election and Disputes Commission's Code writing meeting. The third proposed Election Code must be passed by a 2/3 vote of the Senate. If the Election Code does not pass three times the rules for the previous election cycle will be used to administer elections. Refer to Title VI, Chapter 2, §214. The President must approve the final proposal.

Title V: Budget and Finance

Chapter 1: Spending Procedure

§ 101 Appropriations from the Student Government Fund

The Chairman of the Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee is authorized to disburse from the Treasury of the Student Government in such amounts as shall be determined by statute.

§ 102 Discretionary Allocation for Use by the President

The Student Body President shall have power to allocate not greater than five percent of the Student Government Budget unless the student government budget consists of less than $20,000. If the student government budget consists of less than $20,000, then the Student Body President shall have no authority to allocate.

§ 102.1 Budgeting

- (1) Each fiscal year is to be divided into 2 semesters. The first semester will be appropriated 65% of the year's budget, with the remaining 35% of the year's budget being appropriated to the second semester. Unallocated funds at the conclusion of the first semester shall be rolled over into the second semester.
 - A) At no time shall second semester funds be spent during the first semester.
- (2) Before the beginning of each quarter, the Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee must submit a report to the full Senate.

§ 103 Appropriations for the Elections and Disputes Commission

The Chairman of the Elections and Disputes Commission, or his designee, is authorized to disburse from the Treasury of the Student Government:

- (1) $1,500.00 for maintaining the computer and programming, printing costs of elections packets, promoting and conducting of the elections. These funds are guaranteed to the Commission and cannot be decreased under any circumstances. The Chair of the Elections and Disputes Commission or his or her designee, shall under no circumstance be subject to the will of the Student Government, by statute or resolution, as to how these funds are allocated and/or spent in anyway as the Elections and Disputes Commission is a separate entity and cannot be subject to the will of the Government when running fair and free elections, as per the Code of Student Governance, Title VII, Chapter 2, § 201, “The Elections and Disputes Commission shall be an independent body, which shall administer all elections of the Student Government.”

§ 104 Procedure for the Allocation of Funds

Any requests for funds must be submitted in bill form to the Student Senate and will subsequently be sent to the chair of the Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, who must present it to the Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, unless sent into second reading. The Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee will review the bill of financial allocation to be resubmitted to the floor of the Senate.

A) No funds shall be allocated to any external organization or event unless there is a co-sponsorship opportunity.

B) An external organization is an organization, group, faculty or staff member(s) affiliated with George Mason University, which is separate from the Student Government of George Mason University.

§ 105 Procedure for the Allocation of Funds for Printing

- (1) A total of five percent of the Student Government budget shall be allocated for printing services.
- (2) Any Members of Student Government may use these allocated funds given they obtain the written permission from their respective branch leadership.
 - (A) Members of the Legislative Branch must receive written permission from either the Speaker or Speaker Pro-Tempore.
 - (B) Members of the Executive Branch must receive written permission from either the Student Body President or Student Body Vice President
 - (C) Members of the Elections and Disputes Commission must receive written permission from the Chairman of the Commission.
 - (D) The Clerk of the Student Senate shall be exempt from subsection (2) and may use these allocated funds if he is transacting official business of the Office of the Clerk, provided that he provides a receipt to either the Treasurer or the Chair of the Senate Financial Affairs Committee.
- (3) Under no circumstance shall more than $50.00 be spent on any single printing purchase unless approved by the Student Senate appropriations process otherwise.

- (4) All receipts and a copy of the written permission (with a signature) from the respective branch leader authorizing any such expenditure shall immediately be provided to either the Treasurer or Chair of the Senate Finance Committee.
- (5) Any funds not utilized at the end of the academic year shall be reserved to the main Student Government account.

§ 106 Time Limitation for Appropriations

Any funds allocated to a non-event by the Student Senate of George Mason University will be subject to a limitation of time in which the allocated funds are available. All money allocated to an event that remains unspent at the completion of the event shall be recouped at the completion of the event. Funds allocated will need to be used three weeks after being allocated, upon which funds that are not used for their original purposes will be reabsorbed back into the Student Government Account, unless otherwise specified by statute within legislation.

§ 106.1 Procedure for the Allocation of the Student Government Emergency Reserve Fund

- (1) A total of five percent of the Student Government budget shall be allocated for the reservation of emergency funds.
- (2) The SG emergency reserve fund may be used only with the unanimous written consent of the Student Body President, Speaker of the Student Senate, Chair of the Senate Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee, and the Secretary of the Administrative and Financial Affairs department.
 - (A) The SG emergency reserve fund shall only be used in the case of a declared financial emergency, which must be unanimously decided by the aforementioned officers.
 - (B) A financial emergency shall be defined as a situation by which the Student Senate is unavailable to properly allocate funding through standard legislative procedures.

§ 107 Required Expense Detail

Any requests for the allocation of funds shall be accompanied by a line item description of all expenses thereunto pertaining. No blanket or general allocations shall be made, and allocations shall only be made for concrete and specific costs. Any line item exceeding $200 shall be broken down into its constituent expenses.

- (1) In cases where it is impossible to break down in a line item format on a funding bill that exceeds $200, then the author may seek an exemption through the Speaker, Administrative and Financial Affairs Chair, and the President for the bill not to be line itemed. The Speaker, the Administrative and Financial Affairs Chair and the President can give approval for a bill not to be lined item by signing a form prior to the review of the bill by the Administrative and Financial Affairs Committee that states the following: “We hereby grant approval for the following bill not to lined item and only list an overall amount that is to be allocated to the purpose of the allocation.”
 - A) The bill shall have the form mentioned above in § 106 subsection 2 and a receipt stapled to the bill upon its passage to show what the money was spent on for recording-keeping.

Title VI: Elections and Voting

Chapter 1: General Provisions

§ 101 Applicability

The provisions of this title shall apply to all elections held by the Student Government, pursuant to provisions of the Student Body Constitution and of the Code of Student Governance generally.

§ 102 Definitions

As used in this title, unless context requires another meaning:

Chapter 2: Election and Dispute Commission

§ 201 Establishment of the Commission

The Election and Dispute Commission shall be an independent body, which shall administer all elections of the Student Government.

§ 202 Oath of Office

Commissioners shall be bound by an oath of office, pursuant to Article IV, Section 2 of the Student Body Constitution.

§ 203 General Restrictions

- (1) No Commissioner shall simultaneously hold any other office in the Student Government;
- (2) No Commissioner shall assist any candidate for office or participate in any political campaign having a vested interest in the outcome of any election administered by the Commission;
- (3) No Commissioner, who shall resign his office, shall be eligible to run for an elected office within the Student Government for the next academic year.

§ 204 Attendance

Every Commissioner is responsible for attending general pre-scheduled Election and Disputes Commission meetings that are scheduled together by the Commission as a group. After 2 unexcused absences, a commissioner will receive a warning from the Commission. After 3 unexcused absences, a commissioner will be immediately removed from office. Meetings scheduled 72 hours or less in advance, such as grievance meetings, will not count in the attendance policy. The Commission will be required to keep track of attendance and immediately report to the Senate whether a commissioner received a warning or received 3 unexcused absences, which will result in removal from office.

§ 205 Removal from Office

If any commissioner does not adhere to the Attendance policy or does not execute any other responsibilities outlined by the Election Code or Code of Student Governance, and then they are immediately placed on grounds for removal from office.

§ 206 Officers of Election

Pursuant to §202 of this Title, the Commission may appoint a student to serve as an officer of election, to serve for the duration of any election duly established by statute.

§ 207 Oath of Office

Officers of election shall be bound by an oath of office, pursuant to Article IV, Section 2 of the Student Body Constitution.

§ 208 General Powers

Officers of election shall have the power to:

- (1) Assist any Commissioner in administering ballots during an election;
- (2) Assist in any other duties the Commission may require during an election, except duties specifically prohibited.

§ 209 Restrictions

Officers of election shall not:

- (1) Be candidates for office or hold any other office under Student Government;
- (2) Assist any candidate for office or participate in any political campaign having a vested interest in the outcome of any election administered by the Commission;

- (3) Handle cast ballots or participate in the counting of cast ballots;
- (4) Participate in meetings of the Commission or hearings of the Judicial Board;
- (5) Exercise any powers expressly given to Commissioners.

§ 210 Reporting

- (1) The Commission shall report to the Senate or to the President upon request;
- (2) Within two weeks following an election, the Commission shall submit a written report to the Senate assessing the operations of the election. The report shall include conclusions on the effectiveness of election regulations, and recommendations on ways to improve electoral administration.

§ 211 Public Record

The Commission and the Election Judicial Board shall keep a full and public record of their meetings and any hearings or rulings that they may make.

§ 212 Candidates' Meetings

The Commission shall hold no less than two meetings with candidates for the purpose of allowing candidates to properly file documents pertaining to their candidacy and to provide candidates with all necessary information regarding the election and election procedures. Similarly, the Elections & Disputes Commission shall hold office hours during the period of the election in the Office of Student Involvement, to make themselves available for questions or concerns by candidates.

§ 213 Requirements

- (1) The Commission shall take all necessary steps to ensure that a website to provide for electronic voting will be utilized. The Commission shall ensure that the website is in proper working order.
- (2) Publicize, to the satisfaction of the Student Senate, all relevant information to the conduct of the Student Government elections.

§ 214 Creation and Enforcement of an Election Code

In this Election code created by the Election and Disputes Commission (refer to Title IV, Subtitle II, Chapter 4, § 406) , all rules of candidacy, campaigning, elections, the grievance process, and instances of disqualification will be outlined that will govern the whole Election Process. The Elections and Disputes Commission will solely be responsible for enforcing the Election Code that they have created for the Election cycle.

§ 215 Prohibited Space

- (1) There should be absolutely no campaigning, discussion of elections, or collection of signatures in the office of student involvement. The Office of Student Involvement includes all spaces within the office; such as the Student Government Office, Program Board Office, Fraternity and Sorority Life, Lobby Area, Weekends, Imagination Station, etc.

Chapter 2: Application Review Committee

§ 201 Composition of the Committee

The Application Review Committee shall be comprised of the Speaker Pro Tempore of the Student Senate, Speaker of the Student Senate, the Student Body President, the Student Body Vice President, and, if applicable, the applicant's Committee Chair, or overseeing Secretary, and shall convene only if an application for exception is filed.

§ 202 Votes of the Committee

The Committee may elect to grant or deny the application. Any vote of the Committee must be a majority in either the affirmative or the negative. A tie vote shall not be considered as either a granting or denial of the application. The deliberation of the Committee shall be secret.

§ 203 Votes on Applications for Exception

In the event of an Application for Exception, the Committee may, after review of a written application, and, at the discretion of the Committee, arrive at one of the following verdicts:

- (1) To grant cords of Distinction to an applicant not previously eligible;
- (2) To grant cords of Exceptional Distinction to an applicant previously eligible to receive cords of Distinction;
- (3) To deny the application.

Title VIII: Administration of Government

Chapter 1: Nondiscrimination Act

§ 101 Declaration of Policy

Membership in the George Mason University Student Government shall not be restricted on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, veteran status, sexual or romantic orientation, gender identity or expression, age, marital status, pregnancy status, or genetic information.

§ 102 Referral of Complaints

Complaints under this chapter shall be referred to the Elections and Dispute Commissions.

Chapter 2: Code Revision and Archival

§ 301 Bills to Amend the Code of Student Governance

After a bill to amend the code of student governance has passed the Student Senate, been engrossed, and been attested by the Speaker of the Student Senate and the Clerk of the Student Senate, it shall be sent to the Student Body President for approval. If the bill is approved, the Student Body President shall transmit the signed copy of the bill to the Clerk of the Student Senate for revision and archiving. If the bill is vetoed and the Student Senate overrides the veto, the bill shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Student Senate for revision and archiving.

§ 302 Revision of the Code of Student Governance

The Clerk, along with the Chairman of the Government and Academics Affairs Committee shall have the authority to revise the Code of Student Governance. The Code of Student Governance shall be revised immediately after it is passed by the Senate and signed by the President, or if vetoed passed by 2/3rds of the Student Senate. As soon as possible the Code shall be posted to the Student Government website. Annually, the Clerk, along with the Chairman of the Government and Academic Affairs Committee, shall also produce an annotated version of the Code of Student Governance that notes the history of amendments and relevant interpretations by the Elections and Disputes Commission.

§ 303 Legislative Archives

After signed legislation has been transmitted to the Clerk of the Student Senate, the legislation, along with the journals, minutes, recorded votes, introduced legislation, the most recent revision of the Code of Student Governance, the most recent version of the Student Body Constitution, and other miscellaneous documents of the Student Senate, shall be archived in a binder. A list detailing the final disposition of all introduced legislation shall accompany the binder.”

Title IX: Code of Professional Responsibility

Chapter 1: Establishment

§ 101 Establishment of Title IX

This Code of Professional Responsibility is a document designed to guide the behavior and character of members of this Organization. It will set forth the procedures to be used in specific ethical situations and delineate the procedures to determine whether a violation of this title occurred and, if so, what remedies should be imposed.

§ 102 Precedence

The Constitution of George Mason University’s Student Government and the Code of Student Government take precedence over this Code of Professional Responsibility.

§ 103 Purpose and Intention

The Code of Professional Responsibility establishes the expectations of Student Senate members in regards to leadership, academia, and behavior.

Chapter 2: Expectations of Student Government Members

§ 201 Servant Leadership

Members of Student Senate will dedicate themselves to serving the needs of the Student Body and the University.

- (1) Members of Student Senate will make decisions that will enhance the entire organization, the university, and their community rather than themselves
- (2) Members of Student Senate will practice fairness, integrity, and dependability in their roles within this organization.
- (3) Members of Student Senate will remain unbiased when addressing the needs, feedback, and suggestions from members of the organization and members of the university.

§ 202 Role Modeling

- (1) Members of Student Senate will demonstrate appropriate behavior as outlined in the University Judicial Code, The Student Code of Conduct and other University Policies.
- (2) Members of Student Senate will strive to set an example of appropriate behavior while interacting with students and other members of the University.

§ 203 Academic Achievement

- (1) Members of Student Senate will follow all academic rules outlined by the university, their respected colleges, and their professors.
- (2) To ensure the academic success of our members, no Senator shall register for a class that conflict with the general meetings of the Student Senate, on Thursdays at 4:30PM.

- (3) If a Student Senator registers for a class that conflict with the general meetings of the Student Senate, then by unanimous decision of the Speaker, Speaker Pro-Tempore, Clerk, and Senate committee chairs, a resolution will be submitted with articles of impeachment against said Senator in violation.

§ 204 Work Ethic

- (1) Members of Student Senate are willing to devote their time and energy to ensure a well working organization.
- (2) Members of Student Senate must attend all events deemed mandatory by the Speaker of the Senate.
- (3) Members of Student Senate must report once a month on an initiative that they are participating in and how they are contributing to the initiative.

§ 205 Teamwork and Cooperative Attitude

- (1) Members of Student Senate are mindful that they cannot be successful without the work, support, and dedication of all members of the organization.
- (2) Members of Student Senate will acknowledge the contributions of student Government as a whole and will not take sole credit for any personal initiative.
- (3) As a team and not individuals we will focus on using the word “we” not “I” when addressing the media about Student Government events.

§ 206 Professionalism

- (1) Members of Student Senate will demonstrate a respectful attitude towards others at all times.
- (2) Members of Student Senate will be mindful of their use of language while at a Student Government event and during Student Government meetings.
- (3) Members of Student Senate will dress in business casual attire, which is defined by the speaker, when attending Thursday Senate Meetings, unless otherwise specified by the Speaker of the Senate. Failure to do so will lead to the Speaker asking you to leave, which will count as an unexcused absence.

§ 207 Upholding this Code

Members of Student Senate will uphold this code of professional responsibility. Each responsibility is of equal precedence.

Chapter 3: Enforcement

§ 301 Statement

Upon joining Student Senate members must sign a statement reading, “I, as a member of Student Government, will uphold the Code of Professional Responsibility.” All members must sign this pledge annually. The Student Government Advisor will keep this on file and ensure each member has signed the statement. These statements are public record.

§ 302 Personal Exclusion

Any member choosing not to sign a statement is excusing themselves from their role in this organization. Furthermore if at any time a member feels they cannot uphold this code they may excuse themselves from their role in this organization by submitting a letter of resignation to the head of their respective branch of Student Government.

§ 303 Presiding Member

The presiding member of any meeting has the right to excuse any member for unproductive, inappropriate, or disruptive behavior. The presiding member has the right to interpret what constitutes such behavior.

§ 304 Filing a Violations of the Senate Code of Professional Responsibility

Any member of the Student Senate who suspects a violation of this code shall report in writing to the Speaker.

§ 305 Meetings on Violations

The Speaker will meet with the student suspected of a violation one-on-one if the Speaker deems it appropriate. The goals of the meeting are to address the referenced numbered responsibility and discuss ways to assist the member in upholding this code. The Speaker will determine whether this code has been violated, if so the member will accumulate a strike. Any filed violations after the first strike will result in a meeting with the Student Government Advisor. Upon accumulating a third strike; by the decision of the advisor, the member of student government will be placed on probation from Student Government for one week, making their membership temporarily inactive. They must re-sign the pledge before returning to Student Government. The accumulation of a fourth strike, by unanimous decision of the Leadership team, will result in a resolution being submitted by Leadership with articles of impeachment. If not removed by the senate then all consecutive strikes will be treated the same. Any and all violations that could accumulate a strike must be reported within one week of the incident.

§ 306 Probation

Any member of Student Senate on probation will serve as an in-active member of the organization. They cannot fulfill their roles, vote, and must sit in the gallery if they wish to attend the Senate Meeting.

§ 307 Vacancy

In the event the Speaker or any member of the senate leadership is in question of violating this code they may not vote on the decision regarding them. In the event of removal of a member of Student Senate, the proper steps must be taken as outlined in the Code of Student Governance to fill the position.

§ 308 Confidentiality

No member of Student Senate shall make public his filing to the Speaker. The Student Government Advisor cannot release the name of the individual filing. The meetings are not open to any other individuals then are specified in § 305. The results of the meetings and notice of strikes are not to be made public to anyone other than the individual in question. The Student Government Advisor may only release necessary information that is in violation of University rules, is a matter of criminality, or proposes a threat to an individual or their health.

§ 309 Conflict of Interest

- (1) If the Speaker files a grievance the Speaker shall excuse himself, and the Speaker-Pro Tempore shall hold the first strike meeting as stated in § 305.
- (2) If a member of the Leadership Council has filed the grievance then they shall excuse themselves when/if the grievance moves to the 4th strike as stated in § 305.
