Patriot Computer Store will relocate to a new location in the JC after Spring Break.

Anytime Dining

- Anytime Dining will go into effect Fall 2014 and replace the current meal plan system.
- Anytime Dining meal plans will allow unlimited, 24 hour access to the Southside and Ike’s dining halls – giving students the ability to eat multiple small meals per day and encouraging healthy eating habits.
- Anytime Dining will build a sense of community at George Mason University for both on and off campus students while maintaining a higher food quality.
- Current students will have the option to be grandfathered into the new program and keep a traditional style meal plan. All incoming freshman will have Anytime Dining.
Myth vs. Fact

MYTH: There are less late night dining options on campus.
FALSE! Pilot House is open 9pm-4am and Southside is open 10pm-4am. Southside features breakfast items, while Pilot House focuses on dinner entrees.

MYTH: We are getting a Chipotle / Five Guys!
FALSE! While we are trying to compromise with Chipotle, there is NO contract. There is currently no discussion with Five Guys.

MYTH: We are getting a second Starbucks!
TRUE! We ARE getting a second Starbucks located on the ground floor of the JC.

MYTH: Finding halal and kosher food is impossible!
FALSE! We offer halal and kosher food on campus...
  - Halal: Indaroma, Southside (see supervisor) and C-stores (Wrap 2go meals)
  - Kosher: C-stores (Wrap 2go meals)

MYTH: Dietary restrictions equal a miserable on-campus dining experience.
FALSE! Lois Durant, Mason Dining’s registered dietician, meets with students free of charge to help them find options on campus. Contact her at ldurant@gmu.edu.

MYTH: On-campus jobs are hard to find.
FALSE! Mason Dining loves to hire students!
