President: Isaiah Grays & Executive Vice President: Jonathan Dubois Dubois

Too long have the students at GMU been ignored—students who expect the college experience, who expect to find their identity and make valuable connections, have been denied that necessity. We aim to make this campus a place where students aren't just numbers filling a demographic for diversity points. Not a system that ignores people—but a relationship between you, the students, and us. You want leaders who are not only at the head of this—but also at the bottom, listening to you and being involved. That is what we intend to do. A vote for Grays-Dubois is a vote to bring back the YOU in GMU!

President: Evelyn Johnston & Executive Vice President: Zach Lincoln

If you think mold in the dorms, food poisoning in the dining halls, and slow Wifi are unacceptable, vote for us. Time for SG to put your basic needs first. We are the Change You Deserve!

President: Ilia Sheikholeslami & Executive Vice President: Charlotte Bell

Our campaign is centered on four pillars: Student Voices, Accessibility, Campus Community, and Academic Support. We've collected 400 lbs+ of trash from campus, mobilized 70+ students to meet with lawmakers, secured dining improvements, and met with hundreds of students to hear your concerns. We're ready to fight to raise the 15-credit cap, open a disability resources center, expand Greek Life and athletics, amplify student representation, defend our campus from ongoing political attacks, and listen to YOU. A vote for Sheikholeslami-Bell is a vote to Empower Every Voice & Elevate Every Student.

Student Representative Body: At-Large Seats

Tami Adejumo

Hey! I am Tami Adejumo, a Government major here at GMU, and I am running to be an undergraduate student representative! With a commitment to academic excellence, prioritizing Mental Health, bridging the gap between students and administrators, and making Student Government more accessible, I know I have what it takes to be one of your representatives.

Imani Anzaya

Girls Just Wanna Have F.U.N.' is about more than just having a good time – it's about building a community where we feel supported and heard. Let's Frequently talk about the housing issues that are impacting us, Unite to make change, and Navigate the resources we need to thrive. I'm ready to be your voice!

Ty Carson

Hello! My name is Ty Carson, I am the current Chair of the Administrative and Financial department and committed to give back to the Mason community. My goal for next year is to maintain financial transparency via the Mandatory Student Fee committee, as well as host town halls for transparency.

Griffin Crouch

I'm your Academics Chair. Wins: Fenwick Lobby 24/7 for finals, more groups in interfaith center, student rep for Mason Core, funding advocacy RSOs plus providing free menstrual & Blue Book/Scantron supplies, & more. Follow @griffin.crouch to see more & vote for me to fight for student opportunities!

Andre Esteves

If elected to the student senate, I will aim to foster positive change at Mason by promoting student engagement and prioritizing the student. A vote for me is a vote to ensure your voice is heard!

Sooma Ghodsi

I'm running for student government because I care about making our school a better place for all of us. I'll listen to your ideas, work to improve our community, and help make changes that benefit everyone. Gracefully yours, Me

Garv Jain

I'm running for reelection to continue the good fight: as the only SG member who has also served in Mason Korea's SG, I want to continue bridging all Mason campuses, and as a cultural RSO officer, I'll strengthen communication with cultural orgs to ensure every student's voice is heard.

June Johnson

I'm on the Women's Rowing Team, President of the Patriot Pre-Law Group, and serve on several university advisory boards. I care deeply about this community and want to make Mason more connected, inclusive, and supportive. I'm running to listen, to lead, and to make real change for all students.

China Jones-Burgess

Hi, I'm China, running for At-Large Rep to amplify student voices across campus. I'm committed to equity, transparency, and building a stronger student community. I'll listen, advocate, and work hard to make sure all undergrad voices are heard and valued.

Jason Menjivar

It is with great pleasure that I announce my candidacy for Senator At-Large of the George Mason University Undergraduate Representative Body. I am running because I would like to be a voice for the George Mason student body, continue my passion for service, and help create an engaged student government.

Emebet Neale

Hi everyone! I'm running for re-election to continue building a student government that's transparent, accessible, and centered on your needs. I'll work to increase open communication, expand feedback channels, and ensure every student knows what's happening, why it matters, and how to get involved.

Gus Schmoll

I am the current Secretary for Administrative and Financial Affairs. I have been working on developing a comprehensive guide about how the university spends your tuition dollars. I believe that the Student Government needs to ensure that the University is transparent and accessible. I ask that you elect me so I can continue my work.

Alexis Stewart

I'm dedicated to working as a leader in student government to uplift inclusivity, advocate for the needs and support of all students, and ensure transparency and accountability. I will strive to build a connected, welcoming campus community where every student feels valued and empowered to thrive.

Brandon Taci

If voted, I want to make sure I'm able to communicate constantly with RSO's and the student body to help their ideas become reality. Simply put, if you have an idea that can help campus, I will do everything in my power to make sure that idea is manifested into campus grounds.

Alison Tippins

I'm running to make sure student voices are heard and considered in decisions that affect us. I care about improving campus life, supporting student needs, and making positive, practical changes. I'd be honored to represent you in student government.

Student Representative Body: Honors College

Kaylah Pratt

I am passionate about supporting our community, and am dedicated to amplifying student voices and making sure every concern is heard and addressed. As your Senator, I'll work hard to support student programs, and create lasting positive change on campus.

Declan Rees

A well-organized and engaged student body is needed to voice the concern of the people regarding the life, safety, and environment on our campus. I am running to be a part of the representative body because I want our community to be one that champions student rights and freedoms.

Student Representative Body: College of Education & Human Development

Jack Gibson

Need to move to best buddies move to new business area and the club football needs to move to new business

Student Representative Body: College of Public Health

Ka'Lise Benson

Hello Patriots and CPH students! My name is Ka'Lise Benson, and I am a Nursing major in the College of Public Health. I am honored to have the opportunity to represent the interests of all five majors housed in the College of Public Health! My principles run on transparency, faith, and kind and firm representation for the student body. I hope I have your vote!

Student Representative Body: College of Visual & Performing Arts

Marie Frias-Pomarez

The arts have long gone underappreciated, and now more than ever is the career path intimidating to follow. My goal as a College of Visual and Performing Arts candidate is not just to represent, but to uplift student voices through my position to gather the support our student body needs.

Student Representative Body: Schar School of Policy and Government

Alexandria Lasswell

Hello George Mason University! My name is Alexandria Lasswell and I'm running to be the next Schar School Representative Chair because I believe in the power of people driven change. My vision is simple: I want to see every Schar School student feel seen, supported, and empowered to thrive both inside and outside the classroom. If elected, I'll work to stren
